Kenya Maritime Authority receives new Ag. Director General

Mr. George N. Macgoye. EBS, OGW has been appointed as the Director General of Kenya Maritime Authority (KMA) on an acting capacity for an initial period of two months. Before his appointment, Mr. Macgoye was the Director of Administration in the State Department of Public Works at the Ministry of Transport, Infrastructure, Housing and Urban development. Mr Macgoye, an experienced administrator, brings to KMA a wealth of experience in Public Administration having worked in the disciplined forces and the Public service for over 30 years.

The outgoing Ag. Director General of KMA, Mr. Cosmas Cherop congratulated Macgoye on his appointment and assured him of his support.

“We are the people who will enable him adjust to his new work environment. He needs our support, prayers and team work. We wish him well in his new appointment,” he said.
