

KMA Staff Shine at the World Maritime University in Sweden on 5th November, 2017

Two Kenya Maritime Authority (KMA) staff graduated in a colourful ceremony at the World Maritime University (WMU), Malmo - Sweden on 5th November, 2017. The two, Selpha Onsongo and John Omondi were conferred their degrees by Mr Kitack Lim, the International Maritime Organization (IMO) Secretary-General and WMU Chancellor after successfully completing a rigorous 14 month Master of Science programme in Maritime affairs; specializing in Maritime Safety and Environmental Administration and Maritime Energy Management successively. They graduated alongside other maritime professionals from over 50 countries.

The KMA employees are expected to contribute to the implementation of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals \(UN SDGs\) in Kenya's maritime industry with the specialized maritime education and training they have received at WMU. They are also primed to ensure the safe, environmentally sound, energy efficient and secure shipping on clean oceans and to encourage and help implement sustainable maritime and ocean development in the sector.

