

KENYA MARITIME AUTHORITY

BIO DATA – ROSELYN AMADI

Ms. Amadi is a lawyer with extensive experience in legal and policy evaluation and analyses having worked as a regional consultant with IGAD and having demonstrated the ability to assess complex international law issues in the field of Human Rights, Trade, Environmental and Maritime law and sustainable development for a number of years.

She has worked as a Government Attorney in the Office of the Attorney General since 1984, Department of Treaties and Agreements (International Law), representational at UN meetings, multilateral organizations on International Trade, Environment, Human Rights and other bilateral, regional and international law issues.

She has dealt with World Trade Organization matters, Regional Integration Issues at the EAC and COMESA. She was involved in the process for the accession to the EAC Treaty of Rwanda, Burundi as well as South Sudan. As Legal expert representing Kenya in the Negotiations for the Economic Partnership Agreement with the European Union (EPA) negotiations she was the key legal expert in the regional EAC framework for about ten years.

On institutional issues, she spearheaded the set up of the State Corporation Appeal Tribunal in 2000 and was its Executive Manager until 2012 enforcing good governance processes.

Ms. Amadi is a holder of a diploma in Corporate Governance (distinction 2009), KCA, Bachelor of Laws, University of Nairobi and Diploma in Legal Education. Together with These Ms. Amadi holds a number of certificates in various skills and competencies.

The following are the professional memberships she holds:

- Founder Member of Federation for Women Lawyers
- Member of the Law Society of Kenya
- Member of the National Committee Against Genocide Crimes against Humanity and War Crimes under the Great Lakes Protocol for the Prevention and the Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, War Crimes and Crimes Against Humanity and all forms of Discrimination

- Member of Ethical Leadership Network<sup>1</sup> among other engagements.

Ms. Amadi brings to the Board strong intellectual, strategic, leadership and management skills.